

4 Field Days Planned for Hamilton County

Please plan to attend one or all of the following free events.

Sponsored by:

*Hamilton County Soil & Water Conservation District
and Clean Water Indiana*

Farm Technology Field Day

Date: August 12 (Tuesday), 2008

Topics: Featuring John Deere Ag Management Solutions

- John Deere Guidance Systems (SF1, SF2, and RTK)
- RTK Tower Network
- Swath Control Pro for Sprayers and Planters
- Mapping and Documentation
- JD AutoTrac Ride and Drive Available

Speakers: Lynn Wainscott & Robert Potter (Reynolds Farm Equipment)

Place: Kakasuleff Farm
9711 East 246th Street, Cicero, IN

Time: 8:30 to 11:00 A.M.

Wildlife and Water Quality—Working Together

Date: August 20 (Wednesday), 2008

Topics:

- Tree Planting
- Riparian Plantings
- Prairie Establishment
- Using Native Grasses for Hay
- Wildlife Habitat Enhancement
- Conservation Programs
- Pond Planning

Speaker: Rick Percy, IDNR Wildlife Biologist
Place: Creekside Farm (Lisa Meek and Mike Warren)
13620 East 191st Street, Noblesville, IN
Time: 6:30 to 8:30 P.M.

Equine Pasture and Manure Management Field Day

Date: August 27 (Wednesday), 2008

Topics: Pasture Management
Manure Management
Watershed Programs that Enhance Water Quality

Speaker: Susannah Hinds, Grazing Land Specialist, NRCS

Place: Dr. Tim Fleck Farm
15733 Joliet Road, Westfield, IN

Time: 6:30 to 8:30 P.M.

In-Field Sprayer Calibration Managing Manure and Costly P & K Inputs

Date: September 3 (Wednesday), 2008

Topics: Manure Management (Utilizing Aerial Photography)
The Economics of Managing Phosphorus and Potassium
Easy Sprayer Calibration

Speakers: Fred Whitford, Purdue Pesticides Program & Justin Welsh, Ag Alliance

Place: Odd Fellows Lodge, 111 W. 296 Street, Ekin, IN

Time: 8:30 to 11:00 A.M.

Refreshments will be provided.

Please call our office for additional information and to let us know you are coming.

Phone: 317-773-2181 Ext. 101